HEAD COACH BETH LAUNIERE

BETH # LAUNIERE

HEAD COACH
32ND SEASON
AQUINAS, '85

601-375 (.616)

Beth Launiere is in her 32nd season at the helm of the Utah volleyball program in 2021 and is coming off the program's fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Launiere guided Utah volleyball to its highest ever AVCA ranking during the 2021 spring season following the canceled fall campaign due to COVID-19. In a conference-only schedule until the NCAA Tournament, Utah ranked as high as No. 7 in the nation and rolled to an 8-0 start in Pac-12 play. Utah finished the year third in the conference (13-4) before its Round of 32 exit at the NCAA Championships.

She guided standout Dani Drews to the program's first ever Pac-12 Player of the Year selection and first ever Ute to be named the Pacific South region Player of the Year two years in a row. Additionally, Drews became the only player in program history to become a two-time first team All-American. The special season also saw Launiere collect her 600th career win as the program's head coach after Utah swept Colorado on March 21.

The year prior, Launiere was named the 2019 Pac-12 Coach of the Year after leading the Utes to a 24-10 record and the program's fourth Sweet 16 in program history. Along with earning her first Pac-12 Coach of the Year honor, she also was named the AVCA West Region Coach of the Year for the fourth time (2001, '06, '08, 19). The coach of the year award was her first Pac-12 honor, but her fourth coach of the year award in her career after she was named the MWC Coach of the Year three times (2004, '06, '08).

Winning 24 matches matched the 2017 campaign and is the most since the 2008 team that had 26 wins in a season. The 14 Pac-12 victories is the most the Utes have had since joining the league in 2011. To cap off the stellar regular season, the Utes made the NCAA tournament for the 16th time and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in program history in 2019 behind a program record four AVCA All-Americans.

With a chance to host in Salt Lake City for the first and second round of the NCAA Tournament, the Utes were instead sent to BYU to take on two of the 2018 Final Four teams in Illinois and then BYU. Utah battled back against Illinois, winning in a long five-set match setting up a match with BYU in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Utes jumped all over the hosts and routed the Cougars 3-0 to advance to their fourth Sweet 16 in program history. It was the first sweep BYU has suffered on their home court since early 2011.

In the Sweet 16, Utah drew eventual national champion Stanford. They pushed the Cardinal to five sets on their home court, and ended up being the only team to win a set off of Stanford in the entire tournament.

The Utes finished the season ranked No. 9 in the final AVCA Coaches Poll, marking the program's best finish in the AVCA poll, surpassing the previous No. 11 ranking it recorded back in the final poll in 2017.

Drews became the second player in program history to be named an AVCA First Team All-American. She also set a single-season program record and finished second in the country in total kills with 643.

Not only did Utah have Drews on the first team, but Berkeley Oblad and Kenzie Koerber were both named AVCA Second Team All-Americans. Oblad had a career year with 338 kills hitting .317 and led the team with 159.0 blocks. She finished her career as one of four in program history to have over 1,000 career kills and 500 career blocks.

First-year starting setter Saige Ka'aha'aina-Torres earned AVCA All-American honorable mention honors after she set a Utah single-season record with 1,518 assists. Ka'aha'aina-Torres had 10 matches with at least 50 assists and two matches with 67 assists. That marked the most assists a Utah setter has had in a single match since 2010.

After this incredible season and when the world got shutdown by Covid-19, Launiere stayed busy by writing a book called Stop Competing and Start Winning: The Business of Coaching with Utah volleyball donor and good friend Leo Hopf.

Similar to the 2019 team, the 2017 season collected 24 victories that were the most in a single season since Utah tallied 26 victories back in 2008, while the 13 conference wins was the most since joining the Pac-12 in 2011 until the 2019 team won 14 conference matches.

Utah earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament and was named the No. 11 overall seed in the tournament – Utah's highest seeding in school history – and earning the right to host the first two rounds of the championship tournament. The Utes would defeat Cleveland State in straight sets in the first round of the tournament and then propelled its way to the Sweet 16 with a 3-1 win over Purdue in the second round.

Utah made its third appearance in the Sweet 16 overall, and the team's first since 2008. The Utes would travel to Palo Alto, Calif., to take on No. 2-ranked Texas, giving the Longhorns all they could handle. Texas opened the match with a first-set victory, but Utah came back to win the next two frames and take a 2-1 lead. Texas countered with a four-point victory in the fourth set and would eventually win the match, but not after Utah forced the Longhorns to win in a nail-biter (16-14).

Under Launiere's Tutelage, Anae rewrote the school record books - breaking her own single-season mark for kills in a single-season - collecting 592 kills during the 2017 campaign while becoming the first AVCA First-Team All American in program history. Anae became the first player in school history to register 500-plus kills in multiple seasons, while earning back-to-back All-Pac-12 First Team honors.

After losing Anae after the 2017 season, the team had a lot to replace in 2018, but a couple of underclassmen in Drews and Koerber stepped up to lead the team. Drews earned Second Team All-America honors after becoming the second player in the rally-scoring era to record 500 kills in a season. Koerber locked down the right side and was named honorable mention All-America.

Launiere arrived at Utah in 1990 and took over a team that had compiled a 1-32 record the previous year. Inspiring a turnaround in the program, she recorded Utah's first winning season in seven years (18-15) in 1992, just her third year. She has now registered a total of 588 career victories, 275 conference wins and an all-time winning percentage of .606, and all of these marks rank first among Utah volleyball's coaching records.

On the court, Launiere has helped Utah volleyball reach new heights on both the conference and national levels. In 11 years of MWC play, Utah won three tournament championships (2001, `02, `05) and three regular-season titles (2004, `06, `08), while qualifying for the NCAA Tournament 12 times.

The Utes have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament 13 times with regional semifinal appearances in 2001, 2008, 2017 and 2019.

The 2008 team went 26-6 overall and won their sixth overall MWC title in school history after starting the MWC season 0-2. Utah went on to take 14 consecutive conference victories against conference foes. Lori Baird was the MWC Player of the Year, while Launiere earned the third MWC Coach of the Year honor of her career.

In 2006, Utah set the school record for wins in a season (28), set the school and conference record for league wins (16) and became only the second MWC school ever to go undefeated in conference play. The team won a school-record 25 straight during the season and was ranked as high as ninth in the AVCA poll. Led by Emillie Toone, who finished second in the country in blocking, Utah led the nation in blocks (3.71). Launiere was voted both the MWC and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year for the second time in her career.

Launiere led Utah to its first national ranking in 2000 after defeating No. 1 Stanford, 3-2, on Sept. 5, 2000. The next week, the Utes appeared in the Sept. 18 AVCA Top 25 poll, coming in at No. 18. Utah earned its highest ranking in school history on Sept. 2, 2002, when it was ranked eighth.

Utah earned its first postseason berth in 1993, placing third in the NIVC. The Utes led the nation in blocks that year, while Mikki Kane-Barton was the top individual blocker in the country. It was the first time any Western Athletic Conference team earned the nation's top rank in blocking.

Seventeen of Launiere's players earned 21 different All-MWC honors and 13 have been named all-region. Kim Turner (2002-03), Airial Salvo (2006) and Lori Baird (2008) were each named MWC Player of the Year. Launiere's recruits have also rewritten the record book, holding career records in kills, attempts, assists, aces, digs, total blocks and hitting efficiency.

Along the way, Launiere also coached for USA Volleyball during each summer from 2009 through 2011. She coached the USA/BIP Team at the 2011 European Global Challenge in Belgrade, Serbia and Pula, Croatia and was head coach of the USA National A2 Program in May of 2010 at the Open Division of the USA Open National Championships in Phoenix, Ariz. Launiere was also on the sidelines as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team at the 2009 FIVB World Grand Prix in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Li Miao, Chinese Taipei and Bangkok, Thailand. She got back on the sidelines with USA Volleyball in the summer of 2019 as she was an assistant for the U.S. Women's Collegiate National Team University Games in Napoli, Italy.

Launiere's impact on the sport goes well beyond the court. She has guided volleyball on the national stage as the AVCA President during the 2009 calendar year and as the President-Elect in 2008. She has also been a member of the AVCA Board of Directors since 2004 and served a three-year term as the Division I Volleyball Coaches Representative from 2005 to 2007 after being a part of the AVCA's All-America Committee for six years.

Prior to coming to Utah, the Grand Rapids, Mich., native was as an assistant coach at Illinois (1988-89). The Illini went 57-12 during Launiere's stay and made it to two NCAA Tournaments, including a 1988 Final Four showing.

An assistant at Ferris State (Mich.) from 1985-87, Launiere helped the Bulldogs win three postseason bids, including an appearance in the 1987 NCAA Division II Final Four.

Launiere graduated in 1985 from Aquinas College (Mich.). She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and economics and has a master's in sports administration from Illinois.

COACHING STAFF

MALIA SHOJI

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
4TH SEASON/7TH OVERALL

Malia Shoji enters her seventh season overall with the Utah volleyball program in 2021 and her fourth season as associate head coach.

She has been a part of one of the most successful stretches in program history helping guide the Utes to two Sweet 16's in her six seasons with the program, as well as five-straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

This past season, Shoji helped guide Utah to its highest ever AVCA ranking when the Utes ranked as high as No. 7 after starting 8-0 in Pac-12 play. Utah finished the year third in the conference (13-4) before its Round of 32 exit at the NCAA Championships. She played a crucial role in standout Dani Drews earning the program's first ever Pac-12 Player of the Year selection and first ever Ute to be named the Pacific South region Player of the Year two years in a row. Additionally, Drews became the only player in program history to become a two-time first team All-American.

In 2019, Utah made it to its second Sweet 16 in three seasons behind a program record four AVCA All-Americans including its second First Team All-American in program history. The team finished with the highest ranking in program history at No. 9.

Two-time All-American and AVCA West Region Player of the Year Dani Drews set a single-season record in kills with 643, which was second-most in the country. Along with Drews setting the single-season kills record, setter Saige Ka'aha'aina-Torres broke the single-season assists record and libero Brianna Doehrmann set the career program record for digs.

Shoji was promoted to associate head coach after working with the offense on one of the best teams in Utah volleyball history. The 2017 team won 24 matches and advanced to the programs third NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearance.

The team set single-season offensive records in kills (1,886) and assists (1,786) while finishing third in hitting efficiency at .252 in the rally-scoring era.

Along with the team putting up big offensive numbers, senior Adora Anae once again eclipsed the 500-kill mark finishing with 547 on the season. The senior outside hitter became the first Utah volleyball player to be named an AVCA First Team All-American and the second player of all-time to earn All-American honors twice under Shoji's tutelage.

Coming into the 2018 season, there were some question marks after losing a lot of the offense, but the team got better as the season went along, closing the regular season winning five of six matches and then defeating Denver in straight sets in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Dani Drews and Kenzie Koerber were only sophomores, but were up for the challenge all season. Drews became the second player in the rally-scoring era to have 500 kills in a season finishing with 522. She was honored by being named an AVCA Second Team All-American.

Koerber played on the right side and earned AVCA All-American Honorable Mention honors after totaling 264 kills and 108 blocks.

In addition to her on-court duites, Shoji has also been the teams recruiting coordinator the past four seasons. In 2017 and 2018, the Utes have signed a top-30 recruiting class according to PrepVolleyball.com, including the 11th ranked class in 2017. The 11th ranking was the highest in program history.

With Shoji's success with the Utes, she has had several international opportunities to expand her resume. This past summer, she was an assistant coach for the 2019 USA Volleyball High Performance Assistant Coach for the Women Junior A1 Team. Following her first season with Utah, Shoji was named an assistant coach for the Pac-12 Volleyball All-Star Team that toured China in the summer of 2016.

Shoji made the move to Salt Lake City after serving as an assistant coach under Brad Saindon at Western Oregon University, a NCAA Division II and Great Northwest Athletic Conference member, since 2012.

While working at WOU, Shoji assisted in the planning and execution of player development, was WOU's primary recruiting coordinator, assisted in off-season training and oversaw video/statistics analysis, as well. She coordinated team travel, initiated fundraising efforts for the volleyball program and was the Wolves' primary camp director. In Shoji's first season with the Wolves, the squad finished the campaign with a 21-6 overall record and finished in second-place in the GNAC with a mark of 14-4.

Prior to her stint with the Wolves' program, Shoji was an assistant coach with Willamette University in 2011 where she helped establish the Capital City Elite Volleyball Club and served as the Director of Business Operations.

Shoji's coaching experience also includes serving as lead coach for the Gold Medal Squared Volleyball Camps (2012-14), head junior varsity coach at La Jolla Country Day School (2008-10), head coach for the La Jolla Volleyball Club (2008-09) and head coach at Saddleback Valley Volleyball Club (2007).

Shoji, who played collegiately at Irvine Valley College from 2005 to 2007), hails from a family that is no stranger to the sport of volleyball. Shoji's dad, Tom, has been a volleyball coach at the NCAA level for more than 30 years. Her uncle, Dave, has been the head coach at Hawai'i 40 years and during that time he has accumulated 1,150 victories, which currently ranks second all-time in career wins. Shoji's cousins, Kawika and Erik, play professionally for the Berlin Recycling Volleys and both players are members of the USA Men's National Team, as well.

Shoji earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications from the University of California -- San Diego in 2009 and her Master of Science degree in Education, Information Technology from Western Oregon this spring. While attending IVC, she has earned an Associate's Degree in Business Administration.

DAN COROTAN

ASSISTANT COACH
4TH SEASON

Dan Corotan enters his fourth season as an assistant coach for Utah volleyball in 2021.

In the spring of 2021 after the fall season had been delayed, Corotan helped Utah make a trip to its fifth-straight NCAA Tournament. The Utes ranked as high as No. 7 after starting 8-0 in Pac-12 play to get the spring season going.

Utah finished the year third in the conference (13-4) before its Round of 32 exit at the NCAA Championships. Corotan saw standout Dani Drews earn the program's first ever Pac-12 Player of the Year selection and first ever back-to-back Pacific South region Player of the Year honor. Additionally, Drews became the only player in program history to become a two-time first team All-American.

His second season in Salt Lake City turned out to be one of the most successful in program history as the team went to its fourth Sweet 16 in program history behind a program high AVCA All-Americans. The team earned their highest ranking ever at No. 9 in 2019 before the 2021 squad improved that mark this past season.

The Utes were led by two-time All-American and AVCA West Region Player of the Year Dani Drews. She set a single-season record in kills with 643, which was the second most in the country. Along with Drews setting the single-season kills record, setter Saige Ka'aha'aina-Torres broke the single-season assists record and libero Brianna Doehrmann set the career program record for digs.

The team totaled 24 wins and finished third in the Pac-12 with 14 wins. The third-place finish and 14 wins are the highest since joining the league in 2011.
In his first season, he helped guide Utah to the second round of the NCAA tournament along with two-student-athletes being named AVCA All-Americans.

Drews and Koerber, both sophomore outside hitters, got better as the season went along under Corotan's tutelage. Drews was honored by being named an AVCA Second Team All-American after totaling 522 kills and rarely coming off the court for Utah. Koerber locked down the right side finishing the season with 264 kills and 108 blocks. She earned All-American Honorable Mention honors for her season.

Along with these two sophomores, Corotan was instrumental in helping a young team to start the season improve as the year went on and close the regular season winning five of the last six games and making it to the NCAA Tournament's second round.

Corotan made the move to Salt Lake City following a three-year stint at nearby Utah Valley, where he helped guide the Wolverines to a 45-44 overall record and 28-14 mark in Western Athletic Conference (WAC) play. He was instrumental in UVU's taking second place in the WAC in 2016, which was the program's highest league-finish in school history.

In his first season with the Wolverines, Corotan coached UVU's first-ever WAC Freshman of the Year in Abby Jensen and then just a few seasons later helped guide Madison Dennison to 1.65 blocks per set, which ranked No. 2 overall in the nation. The Wolverines finished this past season ranked No. 8 in the nation in blocking, averaging 2.98 blocks per set. UVU ranked No. 7 in the nation in 2016 with 2.96 blocks per set.

In his time with UVU, Corotan was also responsible for creating recruiting content, plans and strategies. He managed film sessions on both an individual and team basis, while also breaking down statistical analysis on a daily basis. Prior to his being named assistant coach in 2015, Corotan served as the team's video and stats coordinator.

Corotan also has coaching experience at the club level having coached various boys and girls teams at the club level around Utah. He also coached a variety of camps and clinics, including Avid Volleyball and Global Medal Squared camps.

Corotan, who graduated from BYU in 2014 with a degree in Korean, hails from Los Alamitos, California, where he was a standout volleyball player at Los Alamitos High School. During his playing days, Corotan was named third-team All-Sunset League after leading his team to the Sunset League title. He also played for LBC at the club level, where he helped his squad take second at nationals en route to being named to the all-tournament team. Corotan also gained experience in the sport playing at the beach volleyball level for several years.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SUCCESS

• With 17 appearances in the past 22 seasons, the University of Utah is no stranger to the NCAA Tournament.

• The Utes qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 1998 and advanced to the second round in each of their first three appearances.

• The team has participated in the NCAA Tournament 17 times (1998-2006, 2008, 2013-14, 2016-20) and advanced to the second round 14 times (1998-2001, 2003, 2006-06, 2008, 2013-14, 2017-20).

• The Utes have been to four Sweet 16's in program history and have been two of the past four years, going in 2017 and 2019.

• In 2001, the Utes topped Texas Tech, 3-0, and Utah State, 3-1, in the first and second rounds at Crimson Court. In 2008, Utah swept both Furman and Clemson during the first and second rounds in Clemson, S.C. The Utes downed Cleveland State (3-0) and Purdue (3-1) in the Salt Lake City Regional in 2017.

• In 2003, Utah was down 0-2 to No. 13 Santa Clara in the first round before rallying for a thrilling five-set victory (26-30, 25-30, 30-20, 30-24, 15-12).

• Utah played host to the first and second rounds for the second time in 2005 after winning the Mountain West Conference's automatic bid. The Utes would go onto host its third regional overall, and first since 2005, after earning the No. 11 overall seed in 2017.

Utes get to Sweet 16

Utah beats Clemson on its home court to set up match with Washington

12-7-08

THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE

CLEMSON, S.C. — Next stop for the streaking Utah women's volleyball team — a Sweet 16 date against the Washington Huskies in Seattle on Friday.

The Utes will face another team on its home court. However, it is a task that should not faze Utah, which defeated Clemson on its home court Saturday, 25-21, 26-24 and 25-21, to advance to the NCAA's Sweet 16 for the second time in school history.

"Our three sticky's were amazing tonight," said Utah coach Beth Launiere, immediately after her No. 18-ranked and 12th-seeded Utes (26-5) won for the 11 time in a row and the 19th time in its last 20 matches. "I am so proud of this team and what they accomplished."

Utah's seniors — Kathryn Haynie, Lori Baird and Emilie Toone — combined for 36 kills, as the Utes have yet to lose a set in the tournament. They defeated Furman in three games Friday.

Haynie's 14 kills came on just 19 swings for a career-high .632 hitting percentage. She also had 11 digs.

"Haynie has been a leader all year," Toone said. "She knew it was going to be a tough match and she stepped it up. Haynie took some pressure off us in the middle which was a great help."

Clemson (23-10) actually outblocked the taller, more physical Utes, 16-6. Utah, however, held the Tigers to a .148 hitting percentage.

Utah was down early in the second game, but rallied.

"We are obviously disappointed," Clemson coach Jolene Jordan Hoover said. "It was a tough loss to a big Utah team who was very tough and aggressive. They did a great job of keeping us out of our system tonight.

"I feel like it kept coming down to passing. That stretch [in Game 2] was critical to our game, especially playing a team like this it is really tough to go down 0-2."

The Utes take on fifth-seeded Washington in the Seattle Regional final Friday. The Huskies are 26-5 and earned two 3-0 sweeps in the first two rounds of the tournament over Portland State and Santa Clara. Utah also defeated Santa Clara this season.

"[Kathryn] Haynie has been a leader all year. She knew it was going to be a tough match and she stepped it up."

How Sweet It Is

Utes oust Ags to reach NCAA round of 16

BY PATRICK KINAHAN

The checklist is growing shorter with each goal the Utah women's volleyball team accomplishes.

The latest objective achieved came Friday at Crimson Court, where the Utes beat Utah State 30-21, 30-18, 26-30, 30-22 in an NCAA Tournament second-round match. Utah, which advances to its first Sweet 16, learns its next destination today after remaining second-round play is completed.

In January, one month after their third consecutive second-round NCAA Tournament loss, the Utes set goals for this season. The most important were obvious: win the Mountain West tournament and be one of the final 16 NCAA teams still playing.

Scratch off both for the No. 11 Utes, who beat Colorado State in the conference tournament championship two weeks ago in a stirring five-game match. Utah needed to rally from a two-game deficit that day.

"It's not always easy to set goals and achieve them," said coach Beth Launiere. "We just achieved a really big one."

Utah (25-6) was just really too big for the Aggies (20-11) to handle, relying on a strong front line. the Utes had a .307 hitting percentage to Utah State's .189.

Kim Turner and Katrena Ellen each hit better than .500. Erin Cartwright had Utah State's best mark at .333.

Jackie Morrill led Utah with 20 assists. Kelsie Kartchner followed with 56.

Aline Gedion, Lenka Urbanova and Adrianne Bradley-Drake each had at least 10 digs for Utah.

"We had a lot of good opportunities and digs that gave the ball the attack a good chance," Turner said. "They complement, but the whole team is really tough to go down to."

UTAH VOLLEYBALL FACILITIES

CRIMSON COURT

Utah's Crimson Court is one of the finest volleyball-only practice facilities in the nation.

One of the most intimidating competition venues in the country from 2000 through 2012, Utah racked up a 130-35 (.788) home record and has tallied a 75-19 (.798) mark in conference home matches during that span. Overall from 1994 through 2013, the Utes went 189-65 (.750) at Crimson Court with a 113-37 (.753) mark against league foes

The court was built prior to the 1994 season and officially dedicated on Sept. 9, 1994. It was christened with a win over Montana State and a marathon five-set victory over San Jose State in the Utah Classic. A new playing surface was installed during the summer of 2011.

The largest crowd ever recorded at Crimson Court assembled on Sept. 25, 2009, as 1,747 fans watched Utah rally from down two sets to defeat BYU. The near-capacity crowd also was treated to a 35th Anniversary celebration and Alumni Reunion.

Utah set the single-season attendance record in 2001. The Utes hosted 12,020 fans over the course of 15 matches, averaging 801 fans per contest.

Crimson Court was a launching pad for 10 of the Utes' NCAA Tournament appearances and also played host to the NCAA Tournament, entertaining opening-round action in 2001 and 2005.

HUNTSMAN CENTER

Regarded as one of the top college arenas in the nation since opening its doors in 1969, the Jon M. Huntsman Center has provided an imposing home venue advantage for Utah's basketball and gymnastics teams. And during the fall of 2013, it became the permanent home for the Ute volleyball team.

In its first full season in the Huntsman Center, the Utah volleyball team went 8-5. The Utes won the 2013 Utah Classic with wins over Utah State, Fairfield and Northern Iowa along with wins over Colorado, Washington State, Arizona State, Arizona and Oregon State.

For a structure in its 52nd year of existence, a feeling of newness still pervades underneath the silver dome. But don't let the pristine picture fool you. As serene as the Huntsman Center may look empty, when the Utes are on the floor and fans are in the stands, the place transforms into a madhouse.

A landmark on the U. campus, the Jon M. Huntsman Center is the perfect place to watch a sporting event. With 15,000 chair seats assuring a great view from anywhere in the arena, the Huntsman Center is the largest venue in the Pac-12 Conference.

From its perch at the southeast end of campus, the Huntsman Center stands sentinel over the University of Utah. Inside the facility are athletic coaches' and administrative offices and locker rooms. The enormous reflective silver dome is the largest of its kind in the world. Underground tunnels stretching 2,220 feet connect the arena with the four-building physical education complex.

The famous "steel cloud," a huge mass of steel and concrete, hangs from the dome's interior and holds the scoreboard, and the public address and lighting systems. The building was engineered in such a way that the cloud actually holds the dome in place.

Prior to the 2011-12 season, the entire Huntsman Center playing floor was replaced. A new, $1.3 million scoreboard was installed in the fall of 2007. The new scoreboard features an LED ring by Optotech around the bottom and four LCD video screens, which provide brighter, clearer pictures than ever before seen in the Huntsman Center. The scoreboard also features a player stat board and is 1.5 times bigger than its predecessor.
